TUN MIN OO

MBBS MPP
PHD CANDIDATE, SCHOOL OF
PUBLIC POLICY, CHIANG MAI
UNIVERSITY

2020 December – 2022 December

As program director, I provided strategic direction for the project, considering its objectives and the constantly changing political environment. I engaged with different stakeholder groups that include but are not limited to government officials, members of parliaments, and leaders of civil society organizations. I also led conducting workshops and training for different stakeholders across the country. I designed and oversaw the execution of capacity-building and technical assistance programs for various stakeholder groups.

As M & E specialist, I ensured programs were on the right track per our Result-Based Management Framework.

Senior Program Manager, Forum of Federations (Myanmar)

2019 November – 2020 December

I supervised training and activities conducted by the Forum across various issues: federalism and decentralization, gender equality, fiscal federalism, local government, and diversity management.

As a senior trainer, I have been leading training and workshops since 2019.

Research Officer, Forum of Federations (Myanmar)

2018 March – 2019 November

I contributed as a research team leader to different research activities of the Forum. I conducted a desk-study review on the performance of the Union Legislature from federalism perspective for the period between 2011 and 2017. I also initiated and designed new research programs for the Forum to inform other activities.

Assistant Medical Superintendent (Acting), Magway Regional Hospital

TUN MIN OO

MBBS MPP

PHD CANDIDATE, SCHOOL OF
PUBLIC POLICY, CHIANG MAI
UNIVERSITY

Immediately upon graduating in 2018, I worked as an assistant medical superintendent (acting) at the 200-bedded Magway Regional Hospital. My responsibilities include liaising with heads of departments, medical officers, and office staff on the hospital's day-to-day operation under the medical superintendent's supervision. I attended important meetings about the region's healthcare and public health issues.

Medical Officer, Magway Regional Hospital

2015 March – 2016 July

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Chiang Mai International Winter School on Public Policy, IPPA

27 November - 01 December 2023

Leadership Training

2022 May

I received online leadership training from a leadership expert from the UK. I learned strategies to be a good leader and a manager, negotiate difficult situations, and build a positive working environment and good team dynamics.

Advanced Training of Trainer for Gender Equality and Federalism (Forum of Federations)

13th – 17th January 2020

I participated in refresher training for gender issues and federalism to refresh and advance my knowledge of gender mainstreaming in the context of federal political arrangements. The trainers are political scientists from Malaysia, India, Canada, Spain, and the UK.
